

NATIONAL DIGNITY COUNCIL ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Dignity the spice of life?

TUESDAY 14TH OCTOBER 2014
9.00A.M. TO 4.30P.M

VENUE - National Motorcycle Museum, Birmingham

We work in an environment where we continually hear tales of people not receiving good care and support. The Government and Regulatory Bodies are seeking to make Dignity fundamental to all health and care services through changes to legislation.

This conference will share and celebrate the excellent work that is already achieved by those working in the health and social care sector. It will explore the ways in which Dignity can be placed at the heart of all we do, by whoever is doing it. Dignity is and has to be everybody's business and national speakers such as Paul Burstow MP who will deliver the keynote address, David Pearson President of Association of Directors of Adult Social Services and Malcolm Bower-Brown Deputy Chief Inspector Adults Care Quality Commission will ask the question is dignity the spice of life?. Active workshops will enable participants, to shake up their thinking, mix the ingredients, make the connections, blend the elements and give the campaign the zest for making a real difference.

This conference is aimed at Dignity Champions, and those who either work in or access services in the health and care sector, who are committed to and have a passion for making Dignity not just theirs but everybody's business.
